'Why Your Story Matters'

This private coaching session led by Franco Lombardo and Dov Baron will explore your personal story, beliefs, behaviours and examine who influences you and why. You will learn what 'Emotional Governance' means and why it is the building block of legacy and family harmony. The workshop will involve both group and family-only sharing activities designed to help you understand your Circles of Influence.

1:30 – 5:00pm CPP, EPP

Join us aboard a luxury catamaran to experience Bermuda's famed pink-hued sand and turquoise waters, as we enjoy a delicious lunch whilst sailing along the island's picturesque coastline. On reaching a secluded cove, you can choose to spend time snorkelling, swimming paddle-boarding or just enjoy the exquisite scenery. This is a wonderful opportunity to nourish your body, mind and soul.

7:00 – 10:00 pm CPP, EPPD

Dinner will be held at 'Masterworks Museum' – a gallery designed to open the eyes, nourish the mind and refresh the spirit. You will hear from our special guest, investor, philanthropist, and Executive Producer of Sound of Freedom, Paul Hutchinson. Paul will share his inspirational story, the role he played in one of the largest child rescue missions in history and how he found his purpose in creating a world where every child can experience safety, freedom, and hope. After dinner, guests will be invited to join a special tour of the vaults to browse works by Georgia O'Keeffe and other renowned artists. Throughout the evening, Franco Lombardo will also chat and reflect with Coaching Programme Participants on the morning's coaching session.

‘Transforming Your Story Into Purpose’

This is private coaching session led by Franco Lombardo and Dov Baron will help you to discover your purpose, examine your ‘Emotional Source Code’ and learn the action of transformation. You will be guided to develop a bespoke plan to support both your individual and your family legacy. The session will involve both group and family-only sharing activities designed to bring clarity and purpose into your family and business.

1:30 – 4:00pm CPP, EPP

Enjoy a picnic lunch in the Unfinished Church in the old town of St. George’s, followed by a private tour. The town was granted UNESCO World Heritage Site status in 2000 with highlights including Stewart Hall, an historic 18th century property, and home to the Lili Bermuda Perfumery, as well as St. Peter’s Anglican Church established when Bermuda was settled in 1612. This afternoon offers a trip down memory lane amidst a quaint and charming setting.

6:00 – 7:00pm CPP, EPP

Rum Tasting hosted by Gosling’s, a seventh generation Bermudian family run business. In the spring of 1806 James Gosling, the oldest son of William Gosling, wines and spirits merchant, set out from England on the ship Mercury, with £10,000 worth of merchandise, bound for America. After ninety-one desperate days on becalmed seas their charter ran out, and they pulled in at the nearest port, St. George’s, Bermuda – the rest, as they say, is history. Delicious, deep, dark history. Join the family for our famed Black Seal tasting experience.

7:00 – 10:00pm CPP, EPP

Dinner on an exclusive private island. This treasured hideaway is 25 acres of lush woodland reserve with a tranquil private beach located in the Great Sound. Our ocean-side pavilion, provides a quintessential Bermuda setting and one of the most desired and exclusive venues on Bermuda. Meet the family who bought and developed the island and hear their story of transformation and commitment to Bermuda’s natural environment. Throughout this unforgettable private experience, Franco Lombardo will chat and reflect with Coaching Programme Participants on what may have emerged from the morning’s coaching session.
